Create a premium vintage athletic typography design on a solid black background featuring the words "BUILT BY GOD." Use oversized collegiate varsity block lettering with clean, bold geometric letterforms, rounded corners, strong athletic proportions, and a stacked championship-style composition. Make "BUILT" slightly arched across the top, "BY" smaller and centered in the middle, and "GOD" the largest word anchoring the design. The lettering should be pure white with crisp edges, no distressing, no cracked texture, and no weathering. The design should consist of typography only—no icons, no illustrations, no stars, no stripes, no laurels, no crosses, no crowns, no borders, no decorative graphics, and no visual elements of any kind. Focus entirely on composition, hierarchy, spacing, and custom letterforms. Premium university apparel aesthetic, luxury streetwear, vector-quality artwork, centered composition, black background, white typography only.
